Here Rests on the Field of Honor

WITH THE AMERICAN AR-MIES ON THE VESLE, Aug. 12. - The German cross above the grave of Quentin Hoosevelt, near Chamery, has been removed and an American cross put up. This cross bears the inseription:

"Here rosts on the field of honor First Lieut Quentin Roosevelt, killed in action July, 1918." The grave has also been fenced with atones. Yesterday upon it rested a wreath of flowers bearing the name of Miss Evangeline Booth, head of the Salvation Army. The German cross, which was removed, had on it after the name Lieut, Roosevelt the words, "Buried by the Germans."
